Case: 4:19-cr-00937-SRC Doc. #: 18 Filed: 12/23/19 Page: 3 of 3 PageID #: 28 AO 472 (Rev. 11/16) Order of Detention Pending Trial Significant family or other ties outside the United States Lack of legal status in the United States Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration Prior failure to appear in court as ordered Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement Use of alias(es) or false documents Background information unknown or unverified Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION: The U.S. Pretrial Services Report that was prepared on November 27, 2019 is incorporated here by reference, except that defedant argues that he is not a daily user of marijuana but, rather, that he often uses marijuana. On December 2, 2019, Defendant appeared at a detention hearing with his lawyer. He argued that he has a place to reside with his girlfriend. The Pretrial Office has also confirmed that the proposed residence is suitable. The Government counter argues that this location is not suitable because it is where a search warrant was served and the firearm was found that led to the indictment in this case. Defendant further argued that he is not a risk of flight and that he can be easily found in the area. He is successfully on bond and he denies the charges pending in the state. The Government noted defendant's criminal history that includes weapons possession and trafficking in drugs. The Pretrial Report weighed Defendant's numerous arrests for violent crimes, drug use and a pattern of criminal behavior while on pretrial release as reasons why he poses a risk of danger to the community. Defendant's criminal history also includes failure to appear in court. For these reasons, he poses a risk of nonappearance and danger to the community and he should be detained. Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
